

Acadia Learning Summer Teacher Institute

---

The Future of Four Seasons in Maine: a Scientist-Teacher-Student Partnership to investigate climate change in seasonally snow-covered watersheds (Snowpack project)—year two project kick-off institute

August 11 – August 14, 2014

Application

Please return this application by mail to the address at left, or by fax to 800-393-0154. Or, contact Hannah Webber (hwebber@schoodicinstitute.org) for an electronic version.

Name:

School:

School phone number:

Home address:

Home or cell phone number:

Grade and subject(s) taught:

Years of teaching:

Please describe briefly how you use data in your classes.

Please describe one challenging thing you have observed while teaching students how to work with data.

Please briefly note any experiences you personally have had conducting research. (Prior research experience is not required!)

Please describe one thing you would like to gain from participating in this Scientist-Teacher-Student partnership.

